WAITING FOR TOMORROW TO COME
Village Freeman touched the lives of many in Dickinson, her home for half her life, and the candlelight vigil in remembrance of her demonstrated how many lives she'd touched.

North Dakota's 2018 Senate matchup: Cramer vs. Heitkamp?

By Ben Hunter
Grand Forks Herald
 It's a tough choice for voters in North Dakota's 1st Senate District. Republican Sen. Mark Cramer and Democrat Sen. Heidi Heitkamp are both vying for re-election in 2018. Cramer, who has served in the Senate since 2006, is seeking a second term. Heitkamp, who served from 2006 to 2010, is running for a second term in the House of Representatives. The race is expected to be a close one, with both candidates having strong support in their district.

 Today the Herald looks back at the Grand Forks' worst days and historic heartache. It was the day the river overflowed its banks and washed away both hopes and homes. April 1997, at this time we will share stories from the community and people who lived through it.

THE BARBERSHOP
'You better know who you're talking to'

By Mike Gungreles
hgungreles@forum.com

A barber shop is the ultimate male domain, a place that makes men feel relaxed and talk about subjects they might not speak about elsewhere, where men are all the same and women are not. It's a place where men are without any of the social niceties that are expected in other settings. In a barber shop, you can be as loud as you want, and the barber will be there to listen.
